

Announcing 2009 Summer Grants for Research and Internships in Europe and Eurasia Deadline March 16, 2009

CREES Research, Internship, and Fellowship (CRIF) Program Grants

The Center for Russian and East European Studies (CREES) seeks applications from students in REES and REES-focused undergraduate and graduate degree programs at the University of Michigan for grants ranging from $500 to $1500 towards summer or semester-long research projects or internships at institutions in Eastern Europe or the former Soviet Union.

CES-EUC Summer Research and Internship Grants

The Center for European Studies – European Union Center (CES-EUC) seeks applications from University of Michigan undergraduate and graduate students for grants ranging from $500 to $1500 towards summer research or internships. The grants are intended to promote the study of Europe and European integration.

U-M undergraduate students are encouraged to apply for the EU Studies Summer Program in Brussels and may receive funding for this program by applying for CES-EUC Summer Research and Internship Grants. For more information see <http://jsis.washington.edu/euc/students/brussels.shtml> and <http://www.ii.umich.edu/ces-euc/resources/student>.

Application Procedure

The following materials are required:

- CREES/CES-EUC summer funding application*
- Statement of purpose (1-3 pages) including proposed time period, institutional affiliation, your reasons for pursuing the project, and how this experience will contribute to your career goals
- Two letters of recommendation
- Budget worksheet*
- Curriculum Vitae
- Official University of Michigan transcript

*Application and budget forms are at <http://www.ii.umich.edu/crees/academics/studentfund> or <http://www.ii.umich.edu/ces-euc/resources/student>.
