

The Center for International & Comparative Studies Announces

The New International Studies Concentration

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES CONCENTRATION

The International Studies (IS) concentration offers students the opportunity to take a set of courses across disciplines to bring multiple methods and concepts together to address global problems.

The concentration will draw on methods developed in specific disciplines such as economics, sociology, psychology, comparative literature, political science, anthropology, and history.

Students choose one of four tracks:

1. International Security, Norms, and Cooperation
2. Political Economy and Development
3. Comparative Culture and Identity
4. Global Environment and Health

For each track there is a prescribed menu of courses, available on our website: <http://ii.umich.edu/cics>.

**All courses need to be approved by the CICS student advisor.**

The Center for International & Comparative Studies is located on the third floor of the School of Social Work Building: 1080 S. University, Ann Arbor, MI 48109.

REQUIREMENTS INCLUDE

Language

Sixth-term (three years) proficiency in a language other than English

CICS courses

CICS 101 (Intro to International Studies)

CICS 301 (Principles of International Studies)

CICS 401 (Advanced Topics Seminar)

One research methods course

One course focusing on a world region/country

Three electives

For more details about the International Studies concentration contact Folaké Graves, CICS Student Services Coordinator, at 734.764.3149 or fograves@umich.edu.