Traces of a Jewish Presence in Poland

The photographs by Piotr Piluk, produced over the last sixteen years, show the preserved architectural fragments of Jewish cultural heritage in Poland. The exhibition was sponsored by the Frankel Center for Judaic Studies and the Copernicus Endowment. (Lódz Cemetery Gate, 1999 photo by Piotr Piluk.)

How can you help? By making a gift to the Copernicus Endowment, you are making a difference for Polish studies at the University of Michigan and our students and scholars. These gifts are investments in the future of Polish studies at the University of Michigan and in the intellectual community there. With your gift, you can help fund the University of Michigan’s leading Polish studies program. Your support will help ensure that students and scholars can continue to serve the global Polish community.
