

Workload Expectations for Lecturers in EEB

In the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the normal 100% teaching load for a Lecturer is six (6) courses per University Year, three (3) each during the fall and winter terms. In the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology (EEB), the normal 100% teaching load is six (6) course equivalents per University Year, three (3) each during the fall and winter terms. Course equivalencies are assigned based on the EEB Teaching Assignments Policy. In addition to teaching responsibilities, LEO Lecturer IVs will also be assigned administrative and/or service duties to meet the needs of the Department of EEB. This may include the EEB Curriculum Committee, Academic Advising, or other appropriate committee assignments.
