

Apollo, God of the Musical Arts

Hermes made Apollo the god of the Musical Arts when they made up and he gave his brother the lyre he had made out of a turtle shell. From then on Apollo was rarely seen without his lyre in his hand. Image found on white ground kylix, Delphi Archaeological Museum, Delphi 8140.